The young man named above is applying to St. Michael's - an academically oriented, boarding, Catholic high school for boys.

We form students into men of insight and integrity, in fidelity to the Catholic intellectual tradition. This formation integrates faith, academics, and character. Students center their efforts on preparation for college and beyond. We present a curriculum that emphasizes our western cultural patrimony in theology, humanities, and the sciences. We round out the young man's education additionally though the arts and athletics. Because it is an undivided environment, St. Michael's offers a student wholesome growth toward maturity. Students share in the responsibility for the school and thereby learn to cooperate with their fellows and those in authority. This exchange guides a young man to accept the discipline and responsibilities that are so essential in a well-adjusted adult.

St. Michael's admits students of any race, color, religion or ethnic origin to all the rights, privileges, programs and activities of the school.

We would appreciate your candid and confidential evaluation of the applicant as a person and as a student. Thank you for your time and consideration in assisting us to effectively determine how we are best able to assist this young man.
